Emily is having the time of her life--she's with her best friend, Kristen, on their annual reunion trip, feeling closer than ever. But when Emily enters their hotel suite, she finds blood and broken glass on the floor. Kristen says the backpacker she'd been flirting with attacked her, and she had no choice but kill him in self-defense. Even more shocking: the horrifying similarity to last year's trip, when another backpacker wound up dead. Emily can't believe it's happened again--can lightning really strike twice?

Back home, Emily struggles to bury her trauma, diving into a new relationship and throwing herself into work. But when Kristen shows up for a surprise visit, Emily must confront their violent past. As she feels the walls closing in, she must reckon with the truth about her closest friend. Can she outrun the secrets they share, or will it destroy her relationship, her freedom--even her life?

Olivia McAfee knows what it feels like to start over. Her picture-perfect life—living in Boston, married to a brilliant cardiothoracic surgeon, raising a beautiful son, Asher—was upended when her husband revealed a darker side. She never imagined she would end up back in her New Hampshire hometown, living in the house she grew up in, and taking over her father's beekeeping business.

And for just a short while, these new beginnings are exactly what they need. Asher falls for the new girl in school, and she can't help but fall for him, too. Yet at times, she wonders if she can she trust him completely...

Then one day, Olivia receives a phone call: the girl is dead, and Asher is being questioned by the police. Olivia is adamant that her son is innocent. But she would be lying if she didn't acknowledge the flashes of his father's temper in him, and as the case against him unfolds, she realizes he's hidden more than he's shared with her.
